BRIAN MEYER
Head Golf Professional
Mount Pleasant Golf Course

Brian Meyer didn't always know he wanted to be a golf pro.

Meyer started working in the golf industry in 1989. He always liked golf, but when he started actually working at a golf course, he fell in love with the game, and thought becoming a professional would be a great way to make a living.

Meyer is currently the Head Golf Professional at Baltimore's Classic Five's Mount Pleasant Golf Course. He has held the position for the last year.

Prior to being named to his position, Meyer was an Assistant Professional and Teaching Professional for six years at Baltimore's Classic Five's courses. During his tenure as a pro, he has already raised over $5,000 for the junior golf program.

Before working for Baltimore's Classic Five, Meyer worked for The Club at Patriots Glen, Maryland Golf & Country Clubs, and Turf Valley Resort and Conference Center. He officially turned professional in 1995. Apart from just working at a golf course, Meyer is also a member of the Professional Golf Association of America.

Most of Meyer's time is spent playing golf, but his other hobbies include soccer, wood-working, and watching his son, participate in sports. He currently resides in Harford County.
