

JIM DECK
Head Golf Professional
Pine Ridge Golf Course

Jim Deck has been around golf since he was nine years old.

A legacy of the game, Deck's father was a golf professional and taught his son the game at an early age. When Deck got older, he decided to follow his father's footsteps and become a golf professional himself.

Deck is the Head Golf Professional of Baltimore's Classic Five's Pine Ridge Golf Course and has worked for Baltimore's Classic Five for 20-plus years. He started as the Head Golf Professional for Mount Pleasant in 1988 until 2010, when he took over the same role with Pine Ridge.

Deck became a professional in 1979 and was elected to PGA membership in 1984. Before coming to Baltimore's Classic Five, he worked at the US Naval Academy Golf Course, Indian Spring Country Club and the Country Club of Woodmore. Deck's long history in the golf industry has led to him being recognized as a Quarter Century member of the PGA.

Being such a tenured member of Baltimore's Classic Five's staff, Deck has contributed in many aspects to the company. Outside of running the Pine Ridge facility, he has done tremendous work in Baltimore's Classic Five's tournament series.

Deck currently resides in Crofton, Md.
