

RICHARD SHEPPARD JR

Head Golf Professional

Carroll Park Golf Course

Richard is a true Baltimore native. Grew up and raised locally in the Randallstown, Owings Mills area of Baltimore County. He was first introduced to the game of golf by his father and uncles as an early adolescent. He has been in love with the game ever since which made it an easy decision for him to make golf his career.

Richard graduated from the University of Maryland Eastern Shore's PGA Golf Management Program in December 2013. Then elected to PGA Membership in June 2014. He has interned/worked in the Baltimore area at Woodholme Country Club, Forest Park Golf Course, Fox Hollow Golf Course and The Suburban Club.

He came to The Suburban Club as a seasonal assistant in 2013 and was elevated to First Assistant in 2015. There Richard thrived and developed how to become a golf professional. He was respected and well liked by the membership staff, and fellow professionals. Richard's rapid growth and success is due to his love for people, his dedication to learning, and his passion for helping all golfers to better enjoy the game of golf.

Richard became the Head Golf Professional at Carroll Park Golf Course in December of 2019.

He brings to Carroll Park his expertise in golf course operations, customer service, and merchandise sales. He also brings his passion for growing the game of golf through strong junior and ladies programs.
